LOCAL BREVITIES.

"THE SANCTIFIED ONES."—The good people near Austin, Texas, have been much worried of late by the results of the preaching of certain Scotch "perfectionists," who arrived in that city recently. They profess to be perfectly sanctified in body and soul and to do all things by inspiration of the Holy Ghost dwelling in them. Several residents of Austin having been proselyted, refused to enter into business with those who could not believe such radical doctrines, and in several cases women refused to live any longer with "unsanctified" men. The last move was too much for a few living Benedictines, and the "perfectionists" were sent by the injured parties. An appeal has been made to the British consul at that place to afford protection to the preachers. One converted female was positive in saying she would do as the Lord commanded, and she received instructions from the Most High by dreams and visions. She said that the Lord had commanded her to leave her husband because he was unsanctified; that she had done so, and that if instructed to kill one of her children she would obey.

[There are several persons in this city who hold to the notion that poor weak human nature can be made immaculate and sinless. Without arguing pro or con regarding the truth of this assertion, it is to be hoped that no such scenes will be enacted in our midst, and that no man will be made a widower save in the old fashioned way.]

THE GUIDE GAME IN WASHINGTON.—An old gentleman from Herndon named Van Ruse, went to Washington yesterday, and after transacting some bank business, started to take a look at the city, with a draft in his pocket for $1,000, and $250 in cash. While standing in front of the monument just at the entrance to the Capitol grounds, he was approached by a young man, who was slightly lame, giving him the name of McDonald, and informed that it being Good Friday the Capitol was closed, but there was to be a monument unveiling at Arlington, and as they were both from Herndon, they might as well walk over to Arlington. The old gentleman consented, and reaching the river they entered a boat which was in readiness for them and were conveyed to the opposite shore where they were met by two other men, one of whom suggested a game of cards. The old gentleman refused, and the men insisted on offering to lend him money to bet on the cards they held just for fun. Seeing that they could not swindle him, by inducing him to bet on the cards, the lame man, put in a claim of $5 for guiding him into the den of thieves, which he refused to pay. After paying the man who owned the boat, a dollar for rowing him across the river, he succeeded in getting away from the rascals, and took the train for his home, a happy man.

THE MARKET TO-DAY.—Notwithstanding the rainy weather of to-day, the market was well attended by both sellers and buyers, and the supply on hand was good. The few days of cold weather in this month have had a tendency to retard somewhat the forwardness of spring vegetables, without seriously injuring any of them, and the prospects are fine for an unusually good season for vegetables and condiments. The supply of poultry on hand was scarce, with slow sales. Turkeys sold at 12 to 15c. per pound and chickens 50c. to $1 per pair. The prospect is that there will be an advance in the price of meats, but at present the prices are the same as last Saturday—best beef 15c. per pound, round steak 12c., mutton 15c. and veal 15c. Winter vegetables are unchanged. Spring vegetables are beginning to make their appearance. Tomatoes sold at 25c. per box; strawberries 35c. per box, green peas 70c. per peck, kale 20c. per peck, spring onions 5c. per bunch, parsnips 40c. per peck, lettuce 5c. per bunch. There was a large quantity of good print butter, which sold at 35c. per pound. The fish market was well supplied with all kinds of the finest fish—shad sold at $1 per pair, rock 20c. per pound, prime white perch 50c. per bunch, herring 25c. per dozen.

PASSOVER.—The Hebrew Feast of Passover began last night at six o'clock and will continue for eight days. The feast is observed by the Orthodox of that faith on the first two and last two days, and by the Reformed Church on the first and last days. The Hebrews commemorate the delivery of the Passover from Egyptian bondage, and during its continuance leavened bread is not used, and in its stead "matzah," made of flour and water, is eaten. Services were held in the synagogue in this city yesterday evening, and this morning.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—District Deputy Grand Chancellor, P. F. Shreff, assisted by a large delegation of Knights Lodge No. 32 of Leesburg, instituted Fairmount Lodge No. 54 at Purcellville with a charter membership of twenty-four on Monday night March 1st; and on Wednesday night, March 24th, he, with the assistance of members from Oriental and Mechanics' Lodges of Alexandria, and Fairmount and Ketchikan of Loudoun, instituted Mount Pleasant Lodge No. 55 at Wood Grove, in this county. This Lodge starts with a charter membership of 15. —Leesburg Washingtonian.

A FINE SPECIMEN OF CEMETERY ARCHITECTURE.—There has just been erected in Saint Mary's cemetery a beautiful monument to the memory of the late Thomas Dwyer. It is surmounted by an ornamental marble coping. The workmanship speaks well for Messrs. Walker & Edwards of Washington, who executed the work from the design (which is entirely original) furnished by Mr. Philip N. Dwyer, a young architect of this city.

EASTER MONDAY.—The concert at Sarepta Hall, on Monday night next, bids fair to be the musical treat of the season. Every arrangement has been made and it is already predicted that that these ladies and gentlemen will have a full house. The manager has had a new curtain painted, with a view of Niagara Falls on it. The prices of this concert have been put in the reach of all. See advertisement.

DEATH OF A MUNICIPAL OFFICER.—Mr. Thos. E. Kemp, a well known citizen, and who for some years past has held the municipal office of Messemor of Lumber, died this afternoon after an illness of several days from paralysis. The deceased had a large number of friends and acquaintances, all of whom will regret his death. Attention is directed to the Masonic meeting relative to the death.

PASSION SERMON.—Rev. Father Edward J. Devitt, of Woodstock College, Md., preached a very interesting sermon, on the "Passion of Christ," in St. Mary's Church, last night to a large audience. The sermon was an able and eloquent one, and is spoken of by those who heard it in terms of high praise. The reverend gentleman returned to his home to-day.

FINE PICTURE.—There is now on exhibition in the show window of Messrs. Samuel Tenneson & Co. a full size portrait photograph of Mr. Herman Shue, the social salesman at a well known King street clothing house. Many of the friends of Mr. Shue who have examined the picture pronounced it as near perfection as anything in that line could be.

CITY SCHOOL BOARD.—Last night was the time for the regular monthly meeting, but at 7:30, only Messrs. W. F. Carver, Gregory and Whittington were in attendance, and there being no business of any importance, and it being understood that so many trustees were absent from the city that a quorum could not be obtained, the Board immediately adjourned.

ARRIVAL OF FISH.—But few fish have arrived at Fishmarket to-day, owing to the late bad weather, which prevented active operations at the fishing shores. Two boat loads arrived there this morning, and shad sold at $30 per 100, and herring at $15 per 1,000.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Justice L. W. Taylor, who left the city some time since, and has been here staying in the neighborhood of River Hill, is expected back on Monday night.

Judge Chilton, of this city, Mr. R. R. Farr, of Fairfax and Judge McCabe, of Loudoun, three prominent real-estate men, held a conference at L. W. Taylor's to-day.

Mr. Janet Prendergast, a telegraph operator, died at the residence of Mrs. Jane Glover, on Prince street, this evening about half past four o'clock, after a lingering illness of consumption. His funeral will take place Monday evening.

The famous New Orleans Minstrels, accompanied by Mr. Charles Fadel, formerly of this city, will appear at Sarepta Hall to-night in one of their splendid entertainments. This troupe is one of the best travelling, and those who pay them a visit will undoubtedly receive the worth of their money.

Mr. A. D. Wardell, dyer, a dyer (two sines), received a large package of clothing from Columbus, Ga., to be cleaned and dyed, the order stating that his style of work and prices gave great satisfaction. So it is; some of our people go away from home to get work done, while others from abroad, recognize the advantages of Alexandria, send here.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—At a meeting of Potomac Lodge, I. O. O. F., held last night, the following officers were elected: Noble Grand, H. H. Kelley; Vice Grand, D. R. Stansbury; Secretary, B. F. Pease.

POLICE REPORT.—There were but two cases at police headquarters to-day. A colored man for being drunk, who was fined and discharged, and Milly Scott, who was also fined and discharged for being drunk and disorderly.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 6, 1878.
This is to certify that I have been using in my family, for the past 17 years, Professor Laroque's Anti-Bilious Bitters. They have given entire satisfaction, and I gladly recommend them to all sufferers. J. L. GEORGE, 2118 Pennsylvania Avenue.

These Bitters have been before the public for more than half a century, and are destined to relieve thousands yet unborn from diseases of the Stomach and Liver, Headache, Constipation, Nervousness, and Dyspepsia. All druggists recommend them. Price, 25c. a package; $1 a bottle. W. E. Thornton, Proprietor.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., March 22, 1880.
Having used Warren's English Condition Powder on horses in a complete state of general debility, also on horses suffering from Colds and Distemper, I testify they are the best in use, and I heartily recommend everybody to use them with full confidence that they will convert the most skeptical of their superior merits. &c. [Signed] J. W. Wilson, Agent Adams' Express Co.
